

Announcements for Monday, September 11th, 2017

We had another successful week in the Summit vs. Woodside reading challenge. Each time students finished reading a book they filled out a ticket and dropped it in their grade level bucket. We drew one winner from each grade level and their names are: in 6th grade, Sam Birkey, from 7th grade, Thomas Hill; and from 8th grade, Hannah Manson. Congratulations! Keep reading and filling out your tickets.

6th Grade intramurals will begin tomorrow from 3pm - 4pm. We will meet in the foyer at that time. We will hold them every Tuesday and Thursday for the next 6 weeks. The first sport for Fall will be Kickball on Tuesdays and Dodgeball on Thursdays. This is open to all 6th graders.

Art club will meet again on Tuesday, after our in-house FLEX day, in the art room from 3-4. Any Summit student is welcome to attend. Art club is Free and fun!

The Lady Falcon 7th & 8th grade volleyball teams had a very busy Saturday. They played in their first Saturday Tournament in recent memory attending the Munciana Fall Bash. The 7th grade teams played 6 games in 8 hours and the 8th grade played 5. It was a very successful tournament that saw all players learning and growing. Their next matches are at home Tuesday at 5:30 and Wednesday at 5.

Select choir practice starts today 3-4:30 in the choir room!

Spell Bowl will have practice on Wednesday from 3:00-4:00 in the media center. It's not too late to join the spell bowl team, and students interested in Spell Bowl should see Mr. Moore in the media center.

Time is running out to submit your application to join the Summit Student Council. See Mr. Moore in the media center to pick up an application which needs to be returned to him by the end of the day on Wednesday.

Lunch today will be choice of Turkey and gravy or Pork tenderloin.
